CONSENT FOR REMOTE

SENTENCING HEARING

COMES NOW STEVEN HERNANDEZ, and in support of this consent to remote sentencing, states and avers as follows:

1. That I have had the opportunity to review my pre-sentence reports and have discussed the recommendations of the probation officer with my attorney, Deborah Cunningham.
2. My attorney has advised me that although I can appear in person for sentencing, I may also waive or give up my right to personal appearance and agree to appear telephonically or by videoconference.
3. I understand that due the COVID-19 pandemic, an in-person sentencing hearing may jeopardize public health and safety, therefore I voluntarily consent to have my Judge conduct my sentencing hearing by videoconference or telephonic conference, if video is not reasonably available.
